CONSENT ORDER

This matter comes before the District of Columbia Board of Medicine (the "Board") pursuant to the Health Occupations Revision Act (HORA). D.C. Official Code § 3-1201.01, et seq. (2009). The HORA authorizes the Board to regulate the practice of Medicine in the District of Columbia. The Board has broad jurisdiction to regulate the practice of medicine and to impose a variety of disciplinary sanctions upon a finding of a violation of the HORA. D.C. Official Code, § 3-1205.14; Mannan v. District of Columbia Board of Medicine, 558 A.2d 329, 333 (D.C.1989). The Council of the District of Columbia, in amending the HORA, "intended to strengthen enforcement of its licensing laws." Davidson v. District of Columbia Board of Medicine, 562 A.2d 109, 113 (D.C.1989). And the HORA "was designed to 'address modern advances and community needs with the paramount consideration of protecting the public interest.'" Joseph v. District of Columbia Board of Medicine, 587 A.2d 1085, 1088 (D.C.1991) (quoting Report of the D.C. Council on Consumer and Regulatory Affairs on Bill 6-317, at 7 (November 26, 1985)) (emphasis added by court)).

Background

The Respondent has been licensed in the District of Columbia to practice medicine since December 3, 2003. Since then, Respondent has practiced medicine in the District without incident. During the 2014 renewal cycle, Respondent was unable to renew his license because he did not have the requisite number of continuing medical education (CME) credits to be eligible for renewal of his license. Respondent completed his CME credits between October, 2012 and December, 2012, believing that those credits applied toward his renewal for the 2014 renewal cycle. Accordingly, Respondent was deficient in his CME compliance by 21.75 credits. In all previous renewal cycles, Respondent completed his CME credits during the appropriate licensure period. Respondent has since completed all deficient CME credits and was permitted to renew his license after the renewal period expired. Respondent's license is currently in an active, unrestricted status.

Conclusions of Law

The Board is authorized to sanction Respondent under the HORA for his actions, which are related to the practice of medicine. The HORA provides, in pertinent part:

Each board, subject to the right of a hearing as provided by this subchapter, on an affirmative vote of a quorum of its appointed members may take one or more of the disciplinary actions provided in subsection (c) of this section against any applicant for a license, registration, or certification, an applicant to establish or operate a school of nursing or nursing program, or a person permitted by this subchapter to practice a health occupation regulated by the board in the District who:

* * *

(24) violates any provision of [the HORA] or rules and regulations issues pursuant to the HORA[.]

D.C. Official Code § 3-1205.14(a)(24). The HORA further provides:

The Mayor may establish by rule continuing education requirements as a condition for renewal of licenses[.]

D.C. Official Code § 3-1205.10(b). Physicians actively practicing medicine in the District of Columbia must “submit proof of having completed 50 American Medical Association Physician Recognition Award (AMA/PRA) Category I hours of Board of Medicine approved CME credits during a two-year period preceding the date the license expires. DCMR §17-4614.2.

By failing to complete the requisite number of CME credits during the 2012-2014 licensed period, Respondent violated the foregoing requirements necessary to renew his license to practice medicine after December 31, 2014. Accordingly, Respondent’s conduct described above provides the Board with a basis in fact and law to warrant disciplinary action.

ORDER

ACCORDINGLY, based upon the foregoing, it is by the District of Columbia Board of Medicine hereby,

ORDERED, that a fine of $2,175.00 be and is hereby imposed upon Respondent for failing to comply with the CME requirement to maintain his licensure requirements; and it is further

ORDERED, that the fine imposed herein shall be made by check payable to: D.C. Treasurer , c/o Lisa Robinson, Health Licensing Specialist, D.C. Board of Medicine, 899 North Capitol Street, NE, 2nd Floor, Washington, D.C. 20002; and it is further

ORDERED, that all fines imposed herein shall be paid within 30 days of the effective date of this Consent Order; and it is further

ORDERED, that any violation of this Order may constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of Respondent’s license, after due notice and hearing. In the event Respondent violates this Order, an administrative proceeding may be convened to determine whether such action is warranted; and it is further

ORDERED, that Respondent shall maintain a course of conduct in his practice of medicine commensurate with the requirements of all laws and regulations of the District of Columbia regarding the practice of medicine.

ORDERED, that this is a public document.
